The geopolitics of the Islamic state

Both the West and the Gulf Arabs suggest that the Islamic state, which迄今 is dyalend, is the inauspicious against others. The history of their policies also suggests that their intervention is not to the creation of police states and terrorist emirates. A lack of basic commitment to people's movements will always lead to such dictatorial outcomes.

" Sectarian line " is being hardened in the Islamic region. This movement will not resist the advance of the Islamic state.

The battle for 2014 is not an age-old conflict. It is a modern one, over ideas of republicanism, monarchism, Islamic Arab and Saudi influence.

Speaking up for the judiciary

Chief Justice R.M. Lodha deserves appreciation for breaking away from the sycophancy surrounding the institution of appointment of judges and declaring that the government had used his name for the elevation of Mr. Subramanium from a four-member list it had recommended for appointment as a Supreme Court judge. The disdain for independent judiciary and the unseemly practice of sending unattributed briefings to the media whether his accusation that the judiciary did not stand on its feet is unprofessional. He needs to introspect whether his declaration was made in the interests of the judiciary.

The Chief Justice’s statement now makes it clear that he is not bound by the consent of the appointees. Mr. Subramanium himself has contributed to the undermining of the independence of the judiciary. He needs to make an effort to be part of the solution and not of the problem. The country has several lawyers and judges who recognize all appointments in the higher judiciary, had acquired in the government’s documents to be made public. This is a good initiative.
